

30

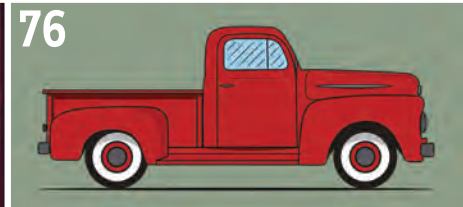

18

46

89

76

92

75 YEARS: NUREMBERG TRIALS

"I'm going to call it what it is. Genocide."

BY MICHAEL P. SCHARF & BENJAMIN B. FERENCZ

10

Justice Jackson's Persistent Post-Nuremberg Legacy

BY BRIAN R. GALLINI

18

SPECIAL REPORT: AFGHANISTAN

The Judiciary and the Rule of Law in Afghanistan

BY MEHDI J. HAKIMI

24

Leaving Afghanistan

International organizations are working to evacuate Afghan women judges, who face particular peril under Taliban rule.

TAYEBA PARSA, ZOHAL NOORI RAHIQ, SUSAN GLAZEBROOK, HELENA KENNEDY, PATRICIA WHALEN, ALLYSON DUNCAN, DAVID RIVKIN, MARK ELLIS & DAVID F. LEVI

30

A Statutory Oddity

BY JON O. NEWMAN

46

Taking Center Stage: The Virginia Revival Model Courtroom

BY ROBERT J. CONRAD, JR. & JUSTINE PARRY WELCH

54

Polarization and Partisanship in State Supreme Court Elections

BY HERBERT M. KRITZER

64

Open Road? Ford reroutes personal jurisdiction

BY MARIN K. LEVY, KEVIN CLERMONT, ZACHARY CLOPTON & MILA SOHONI

76

Departments

BRIEFS

Pandemic Technology in State Civil Courts; Judicial Honors; International Judicature; 2022 Bolch Prize

2

REDLINES

The Importance of Signposting — and Following Through
JOSEPH KIMBLE

8

POINT / COUNTERPOINT

Criticizing the Court: How Opinionated Should Opinions Be?

ORIN KERR & MICHAEL C. DORF

84

THE STORIED THIRD BRANCH

The Joy of Judging with Justice Rosalie Silberman Abella

ANDROMACHE KARAKATSANIS & SHEILAH L. MARTIN

89

A FINER POINT

Learned Hand's Spirit of Liberty: A Lesson for Our Times

D. BROOKS SMITH

92